Reduction Unit.

there. Why “Meeting Place”? Because first we need to somehow meet ourselves, to be the support and why in Zemun Polje and why is it called “Meeting Place”? It is an inclusive centre because I have another fact we carry our burden like a million dollars. That our children are happy with us and that we are happy never be in a position where they need help. They should know it is not easy at all for us, regardless of the go to Sweden because the conditions there are better. I want to develop a system of support for my child fight through it, you want to change the world and say: “I will not go to Novi Sad to treat my child, I will not Today, my son is walking, riding a bicycle, playing football, making an effort and fighting in accordance SUCCESS STORY

even those of the most advanced age, and it is a place helping those who can no longer care for connected to those around you and those you love. It is a place helping people remain healthy and active, The World Health Organization believes that Cities Adapted to the Elderly represent a place enabling elderly under risk of social isolation to be provided support and to reduce economic, language or cultural ages. This enables, on the one hand, for the elderly to feel socially included, and on the other, for those Such cities foster intergenerational solidarity, enable social relations and links between citizens of all adapted to the elderly.

answer the question what would, in fact, the term titled Cities Adapted to the Elderly. The project united cities and communities worldwide interested in other. Talk of this issue started when the World Health Organization developed a global project in 2006 Belgrade, is marked.

basically half the population of Earth lives in cities, and according to predictions by 2030 three out of five cultural life.

READ MORE...

NEWS

Handicaps do not stand in the way of love, that love sees no limits, that a handicap cannot be an excuse be happy to see them. (…)

“We don’t have a lot of persons with handicaps, I haven’t seen them anywhere!” – I hope there aren’t obstacle. Basically, they are not obstacles, you should instead, ultimately, look at them as something success, which is not right. Handicaps, in most cases, can be a drive, or you can understand them as an You should not admire, applaud, or wonder over young people with handicaps. Young people with