As of a month ago, “Multiart” volunteers are also participating in a regional informal movement entitled “We are here to help”. One of the arguments in favour of the need to establish a daycare is that the children who need it, do not have any kind of help.

Recently, however, they have been focused on content contributing to the improvement of the daily lives of the most vulnerable children. They are impatient to see the daycare open as soon as possible, and hope it will happen in the near future. One of the activities they are planning for the coming year is to organize a mini camp in Gučka, where they will work with children with various forms of disabilities, along with their parents.

ACTIVITIES OF THE SOCIAL INCLUSION UNIT

The “Multiart” association was founded over a decade ago, i.e. in 2006. Due to the efforts of a group of volunteers, it has managed to provide help to hundreds of children with disabilities. Many of them are children with an autism-spectrum disorder. (…)

Other texts by our bloggers can be found at: https://socijalnoukljucivanje.gov.rs/en/publications

The World Economic Forum Published the Results of the Millennials Survey

Do Europeans feel lonely?

Representatives of Western Balkan Public Authorities Participate in the “Europe to me” Call for Project Proposals

National Internships for All Students

Do Europeans feel lonely?

A strategy for social inclusion of returnees

Revised and New Data”:

In 2016, the Poverty Line was RSD 11,694 a month per a consumer unit, while 7.3% of the population in Serbia below the poverty line. Among the population living below the poverty line, 38.9% are the ones living outside urban centres, especially in the region of South and East Serbia, households with members with disabilities, and households with children under 17 years of age. The majority of the households with members with disabilities are heads of household, and the majority of the households with children under 17 years of age are heads of household.

The “Poverty in the Republic of Serbia for the Period 2006 – 2016” Report Published

The “Poverty in the Republic of Serbia for the Period 2006 – 2016” Report was published on 20th of May 2017. The report covers the period from 2006 to 2016, and it provides information about the changes that have occurred in the period under review. The report is based on the data collected from the Household Budget Survey.

Documenting the Discrimination Cases in the Field of Social Protection

UNICEF Notes Serbia as an Example of Good Practice

Do Europeans feel lonely?

Do Europeans feel lonely?

Do Europeans feel lonely?

Are Europeans happy?

Do Europeans feel lonely?

Are Europeans happy?

Do Europeans feel lonely?

Do Europeans feel lonely?

Do Europeans feel lonely?